E. church and was a faithful member until the last. Hers was an untimely death. She caught fire by some unknown means February 3 and was seriously burned and suffered patiently until the end, February 11. She was conscious of her surroundings and requested that her favorite hymn be sung at her funeral, "Just Lean Upon the Arm of Jesus." Her funeral was held at her church Sunday under the auspices of Star of the West Court No. 77, and Ada Chapter No. 3, the 13th at 2:30 p. m. IN MEMORIAM.
In loving memory of our wife and saintly mother, Mary Kennedy, who departed this life Feb. 11, 1912, in the fullness of her religious faith.
Softly breathe her name to us,
Ah, we love her so.
Gentle let your tribute be,
None better know.
Her true words than we who weep
Owe her as she lies asleep, soft asleep.
Safe above the water's swirl,
She has crossed the bar.
Earth has lost a precious pearl,
Heaven has gained a star.
That shall ever sing and sigh
Till it quells this grief of ours for our love.

ALLEN CHAPEL.
Last Sunday was Boys' day and the young men turned out well. Many accepted Christ. Mr. F. B. Myers conducted the services. Mr. A. Johnson offered prayer and Mr. E. Unthank read the scripture lesson. Mr. Ralph Wisdom gave a fine heart to heart talk on "Clean Living" followed by a talk by Prof. Frank L. Williams, principal of Sumner High school, St. Louis. His talk was grand. At the evening services Hon. Nelson C. Crews and Attorney Geo. L. Vaughan of St. Louis spoke to a splendid congregation. Mr. Crews made the first talk, and in addressing the young men said: "Seek ye first the Kingdom of God and His righteousness and all these things shall be added unto you." Mr. Crews is a natural born orator. He is at home in the halls of oratory, on the stump, in the prayer meetings and even in the pulpit. He was followed by that brilliant, pleasing and forceful speaker, Attorney Vaughan, who spoke to the young men on the "Preparedness for Life," and its work, and when he finished his address and wound up in one of those climaxes which usually sets an audience wild with applause, had it not been that we were in God's house the applause would have been long and loud, for Mr. Vaughan made a splendid talk.
Next Sunday is Girls' day at Allen. The meeting will be in charge of Miss Cook, secretary of the Y. W. C. A. of Kansas City, Kas. Miss Eva Bowles of New York and our Miss Anna Jones. Come and bring a girl. Next Tuesday, February 22, the election of trustees at Allen will be held. All members are requested to be present and vote. Bishop J. Albert Johnson will preach at the morning services at Allen February 27. The members and friends of Allen are asked to hold in mind the county fair which will take place during April.
